PART I.

NOTIFICATIONS BY THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE.

GENERAL AND REVENUE.

No. 15326—Legis. 88, dated 23*rd May* 1898.

CORRIGENDUM.

In Section 16 of the Mysore Merchandize Marks Regulation, 1892, as published in the issue of the Mysore Gazette, Part III, dated the 5th May 1892, the figure "10" shall be substituted for the figure "12," the entry of which latter was due to an error. As corrected, the said Section 16 will read as follows:—

"For the purposes of Section 10 of this Regulation, the Government of Mysore may, by Notification in the Official Gazette, declare what classes of goods are included in the expression 'piece-goods, such as are ordinarily sold by length or by the piece'."

No. 15407—Mis. F. 349-92, dated 26*th May* 1898.

The Government of Mysore are pleased to direct that the following clause be substituted for clause (c) of Rule 9 inserted under the authority of Notification No. 3789—G. F. 349-92, dated the 3rd September 1894, in the Rules relating to the Mysore Local Service Examinations published under Notification No. 18948—G. F. 349-92 of the 15th May 1893:—

"(c) Officials employed in the Treasury and Account Departments of the State, whose substantive pay is not less than Rs. 15 per mensem, will however be allowed to appear for the Accounts Examination".

No. 15503—Mis. 3270, dated 27*th May* 1898.

It having been brought to notice that a large number of Commissariat Followers of the late Tirah Expeditionary Force, who have been invalided, have returned to India without having had their claims to pay, &c., settled, notice is hereby given, at the instance of the Military authorities, that all Commissariat Transport Followers returned from the front, who may have any claims against Government, should present themselves at the office of the Chief Commissariat Officer, Bangalore, with a statement of their claims or, in case of their being unable to prefer their claims in person, to send them to the Chief Commissariat Officer, before the 16th June next, after which date no claims will be entertained.

No. 15130—L. F. 65-96, dated 19*th May* 1898.

This locality chosen for improvement is very congested; has no drains, during rains every house in it will be damp and its well overflowing, and the many narrow tortuous lanes in it will be so many streams of water all emptying into the big stream, Nala street, which will be almost impassable during rains. Hence this part is proposed to be thoroughly opened out and provided with drains. The amount of compensation is estimated to be Rs. 7,749.

The following revised Regulations for the occupation and preservation of travellers' bungalows in Mysore, issued in supersession of existing Regulations are published for general information.

REGULATIONS FOR TRAVELLERS' BUNGALOWS IN MYSORE.

1. The bungalows are for the temporary accommodation of travellers.

2. The fee per diem for each person occupying a separate room is 1 rupee for a first class bungalow, 8 annas for a second class bungalow, and 4 annas for a third class bungalow. Two or more persons (whether married couples or not) occupying the same room will pay half as much again as the full fee, namely rupee 1 annas 8, or 12 annas, or 6 annas, according to the class of the bungalow. Fees at the same rate will be levied for every additional occupancy of 24 hours or a fraction thereof.

3. Travellers passing the night at the bungalow will pay the full fee.

4. Travellers occupying the bungalows between sunrise and sunset only are subject to half fee.

5. Travellers alighting for not more than an hour and taking no meal are subject to no fee.

6. Officers in the service of Government are subject to the same fees for occupancy when travelling on duty as under other circumstances; but those drawing a salary of Rs. 200 and under will be charged with half the full fee when travelling on duty.

7. No one may occupy the same bungalow for more than three consecutive days, if the accommodation is otherwise required, without the permission of the Deputy Commissioner of the district.

8. No person may occupy more than one room when the others are in demand.

9. The kitchens for high caste Hindus added to travellers' bungalows are intended to be used by "Vegetarian Hindus" only, and this rule will be invariably enforced.

10. No part of a bungalow or of the bungalow compound may be used, nor may the servants be employed, without payment of the prescribed fee. But a traveller not making use of the bungalow but merely pitching his tent within the compound or merely using such of the out houses as are not required by those occupying the bungalow will be charged half the ordinary fee.

11. Where a traveller does not himself occupy a bungalow or compound, but only pickets his horse or horses in the stable or compound, half the prescribed rate for personal occupancy will be charged.

12. Travellers are prohibited from sheltering their horses, or other cattle, or vehicles within the verandahs of the bungalows. The personal baggage alone of travellers will be admitted into the bungalow compound.

13. Travellers will be held responsible for damage done by themselves or their servants to the bungalows or furniture or other article. All articles injured or broken must be paid for, prior to the travellers' departure, according to the scale, if any, fixed by the Deputy Commissioner.

14. The Deputy Commissioner is responsible that the rooms be adequately furnished with plain cots, tables and chairs.

15. The person in charge at each bungalow is bound to assist travellers in procuring supplies and carriage for ready money.

16. The messmen who are established in some bungalows are required to place conspicuously in each room a list of charges countersigned in approval by the Deputy Commissioner. If travellers prefer to procure their own meals the person in charge is bound to afford them assistance, and they have the use of the cookroom.

17. In the printed form, or book, kept in the bungalow for the purpose travellers are requested to enter their names, dates of arrival and departure, and amount of fees paid.

18. The Deputy Commissioner is the referee in all cases of dispute. Travellers who have any complaints to make should address that officer by letter, or enter their complaint in the "Remarks" column of the printed form or book.

19. All fees and demands, in accordance with the foregoing regulations, and the mess charges authorised by the Deputy Commissioner must be paid by travellers before leaving the bungalow, any irregularity, inconvenience or other supposed cause for exemption from the regulated payment being referred to the Deputy Commissioner.

20. It is the duty of the person in charge of the bungalow to report any violation of the foregoing regulations. The Amildar or other public servant on the spot should report to the Deputy Commissioner any maltreatment of the bungalow servants and generally any deviations from these rules which may come under his knowledge or be brought to his notice by the person in immediate charge of the bungalow. The master will be held responsible for any infringement of the rules by his servants.
